

R.I.P. Ms. Dana Drabova (~ 2025)

Since 2018, Ms. Dana Drábová served as an International Advisor on Nuclear Regulation to the Nuclear Regulation Authority of Japan. Despite her demanding responsibilities and duties as President of the State Office for Nuclear Safety of Czechia, she remained committed to constructive dialogue on various regulatory issues in Japan. In recognition of her significant contributions to strengthening the relationship between Japan and Czechia in the field of nuclear safety and regulation, Ms. Drabova was awarded the Order of the Rising Sun, Gold and Silver Star, in the autumn of 2024. Upon her passing, the Nuclear Regulation Authority of Japan expresses its sincere condolences and heartfelt prayers for her peaceful rest.
